

Robin Hood

STEPHEN COLBOURN

A Before Reading

1 Student's own answers

2 An outlaw is a criminal.

This story is set in England.

Robin Hood lived in a forest.

Robin Hood became an outlaw after he killed one of the royal deer.

Robin Hood took money from the rich and gave it to the poor.

3

Will Stutely	Met him in Sherwood Forest. Will was already living in the forest, he was wanted for cutting someone's throat.
Little John	Met in the forest. Had a fight with quarterstaffs on a river crossing.
Will Scarlet	Met Robin Hood and Little John in the forest. Had a fight with quarterstaffs, he was wanted for killing his father's steward.
Much the Miller's Son	Met in the forest. Robin played a joke on him and pretended to rob him. Had a fight with quarterstaffs.
Alan a Dale	Robin and Little John found him singing and crying from a broken heart in the forest. Asked him to join them if he would sing for them.
Friar Tuck	Met Robin Hood by a river. Convinced Robin to carry him across the river and back, both fell in, became friendly.

4 b, e, c, f, a, d

5 Student's own answers

6 Student's own answers

7 Student's own answers, but should include the following places: Nottingham, Sherwood Forest, Locksley, St Mary's, the Castle, Blue Boar Inn, Rotherdale, the Outlaw's hideout, Fountain Dale and Lea.