

The Promise by R.L. Scott-Bucleuch

- 1 Gloria. 2 They were very poor. They had had three children before. They had all died. Pedro did not know how to get food for the new baby. 3 'Will the baby live?' 4 She said to Pedro, 'This boy will grow up and become famous. He will be well-known all over the world. He will give happiness to many people.' And she said to the neighbours, 'The baby will become a great man. One day, he will be rich. He will give happiness to many people and he will help poor people like us.' And then she said to Pedro, 'Be a good father to the boy. One day, he will be a good son to you. That is my promise.' 5 'Do not lose hope. Remember my words and take good care of him. Be a good father to the boy.'
- 2 1 Paulo. 2 Palito. It meant 'a thin stick'. Paulo's arms and legs were very thin. 3 He worked as a bus driver. 4 Because their parents died in a fire. Their mother was Pedro's sister, so they were part of his family. 5 Fernanda was the pretty one. Odete was the good student. 6 Football.
- 3 1 He got a job with the bus company. 2 They were the football team of the Transport Workers' Club. 3 They went to the City Stadium to watch the professional football players. 4 (a) The manager of Bahia Central. (b) The job was to play football for Bahia Central. 5 He wanted Palito to play for Brazil one day. He said players from Bahia teams never played for Brazil. He thought that Palito should wait for a job with a team in Rio or São Paulo. 6 Pedro said that Palito was good enough to play for Brazil one day. 7 To ask the manager of Bahia Central to wait. 8 Yes. 9 To see Palito play for Brazil.
- 4 1 Palito's friend, Claudio. 2 He wanted to send copies of Claudio's article to the managers of some football teams. They were the managers of the ten best football teams in Rio and São Paulo. 3 News that Palito had been offered a job by a football team. 4 'Wait and see.' 5 Chico Perez was the manager of White Star. White Star was a football team in São Paulo. 6 He was coming to see Palito.
- 5 1 (a) Corinthians beat Recife by three goals to one. (b) One. 2 The people lit fires and sang songs and danced. They talked about Palito all night.
- 6 1 'Your legs are all right, aren't they?' 2 'Yes, they're all right. They're twisted and they look funny. But they're strong.' 3 It was a job as a football player with White Star. 4 In São Paulo. 5 He became Senhor Castro's driver. 6 Fernanda and Odete worked as servants for Senhora Castro. Maria made dresses for Senhora Castro and her friends. 7 Antonio and Waldir. They were players in White Star. 8 The crowd were cheering his son at every game.
- 7 1 She worked for film and television companies. She put make-up on the faces of the actresses. 2 She worked hard and Palito did not see her very often. She wanted to become rich. 3 For Dr Silveira. He was a well-known children's doctor. 4 Palito's legs were becoming more twisted. 5 The team doctor said that his legs must be x-rayed. 6 No. 7 They said that he was going to be chosen for the Brazilian team. 8 A defender from the other team became angry because Palito often tricked him. When Palito did this, the crowd laughed. The defender kicked Palito hard on the legs.
- 8 1 He said that the bones in Palito's legs were twisted. This was because he did not have enough to eat when he was a baby. He had been playing too much football and the strain had been too great for his legs. 2 He planned to break Palito's legs then set them again. Then the bones would grow straight. 3 'I don't know. Perhaps after three months. But it'll probably be much longer.'
- 9 1 She was afraid of hospitals. 2 Fernanda was moving far away from them and from the family. 3 The Brazilian team. 4 At least three months. 5 (a) She looked very, very beautiful. (b) Fernanda won third prize. Palito was angry that she did not win first prize. 6 She had a part in a film. 7 They did not want her to go. 8 She said that they had both changed so much. She said that it was all over.
- 10 1 They were completely white and they were much straighter. 2 'Soon.' 3 He could not run fast. And his old skills were gone. 4 He needed a lot more practice. He was not good enough for the first team. 5 Palito began to drink a lot. He stayed in bed late. Sometimes he did not go for training.
- 11 1 Because the party was for Antonio. Palito was jealous of Antonio's success. 2 He said, 'You have new legs now. You need more time to get used to them.' 3 He decided to try once again and to try even harder. 4 On the football field. He was training.
- 12 1 Senhor Tonoko. 2 To Senhor Tonoko's gymnasium. 3 All Palito's friends. And Dr Silveira and Odete. 4 He said he wanted Palito back in the first team the next Sunday.
