Chapter	What she does	What she says	What she looks like or feels
2	– finds a half-coin	‘The dead people can’t hurt me now. There’s something strange about it.’ ‘Don’t touch it. I found it. It’s mine.’ ‘I’ve lost it.’	–strange, angry look –face seems old and evil  –voice sounds cold and hard
3		‘They all hated him.’ ‘He wasn’t a villain.’	–face looks cruel
4	–sees a young man who then disappears –takes the half-coin out of Mrs Tinker’s handbag		–feels very cold  –feels able to sleep
5	–goes into the water at Eleanor’s Bridge –goes back to the vault to see Hugo’s coffin	‘Eleanor didn’t throw herself from the bridge.’ ‘I’m going down there again.’
6	–in the vault	‘Frankie isn’t here!’ a deep voice answered. ‘No! No! You won’t capture me.’ ‘There are some bad people down here. I was fighting them, not you.’ ‘You are the the strange person here, not me,’	–very, very angry –face hard and angry –voice full of fear
7	–listens to Edward Musgrave –disappears	‘It was an accident.’
8	–is found in the graveyard –ignores Tom –is found by the lake, talking to someone who isn’t there –plays “Murder in the Dark” –feels and sees real blood and a real eye –wakes up and sees the boy again	‘They hanged Todd from this terrible tree.’ ‘He’s a friend, a new friend.’  ‘Was it your blood?’	–crying   –screams  –tears run down her face
9	–sets off to Isenglas Hall at 6.00 a.m. –pulls wood from the door, doesn’t notice when the porch falls down	‘Give me that,’ she screamed. ‘You’re all horrible.’	–stares at her friends angrily
10	–meets the boy (the ghost of Todd) again –talks to Todd		–laughs angrily

C After Reading

- 7 Green leaves (ivy): ivy grows on old trees like the one in the graveyard, and on old buildings and ruins like Isenglas Hall.

An old coin: Frankie finds half an old coin which turns out to have belonged to Todd Blakely, whose ghost wants the other half of the coin to be found (Eleanor's half) in order for the ghosts of the lovers to rest quietly at last.

A woman's face: this is assumed to be the face of Eleanor.

Mist: mist is seen around the graveyard and the deserted village.
